

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

As a businessperson, I am sure that you have heard that customer satisfaction is key to corporate success. At Mirage Builders, Inc., there is no doubt that it is the ongoing relationships with our many valued customers that stand out in my mind as our single greatest achievement. It personally brings me great satisfaction when our relationship with a customer grows to the place where they view us as an asset to be used to aid in the accomplishment of their goals.

Given that business grows more competitive every day, the pressure to reduce cost, improve quality and increase profits is always on the rise. Many of us in the business world have sought out strategic alliances with cutting edge companies that can add value to our organizations. My goal is that you come to view Mirage Builders, Inc. as just such an asset.

I particularly enjoy working with customers that come to us with unique or difficult projects that together we develop innovative and efficient means to bring these projects to successful completion for all parties involved.

We at Mirage Builders, Inc. have come to the realization that each person in our organization must commit to serving our clients with an attitude of passion, excellence and the highest level of integrity. We believe that it is this commitment that has resulted in obtaining impeccable references and an impressive list of clients representing top companies in a wide range of industries.

Thank you for taking the time to consider Mirage Builders, Inc. We welcome the opportunity to get to know you and learn how we can best serve you and your organization. We look forward to working with you on your current or future design and construction projects.

Sincerely,

Tim Funke

Tim Funke, President
